PROJECT SUMMARY

Organizations working in the field of youth work not only with young people from their own country but also with guest students from other countries. to provide services. During these activities, there can sometimes be a lack of communication between youth workers and guest students due to language and cultural differences. In this case, when we cannot meet in a common language, there is a need to look for ways to communicate with young people. This deficiency is not only in terms of being able to talk, but also in terms of understanding their needs and wishes and ensuring their social cohesion with other cultures.

With the project, youth workers will be able to communicate with young people from different cultures and languages, even if they do not speak the language. They will learn how to get along with young people and how else to communicate with them.

The project will provide youth workers with the ability to act together and in harmony while working in different languages and cultures, will emphasize teamwork by giving them a team spirit, and will provide professional development and experience.

The project will give youth workers the opportunity to examine different youth work in European countries and to sample good practices.

Youth workers will be involved in youth work on an international scale and will learn new approaches and methods and will be able to work in different

They will be provided with perspectives and perspectives.

WHEN AND WHERE?

The training course will be held in Sakarya between 14-22 May 2025, with 14 May being the arrival day and 22 May being the departure day.

Sakarya is a city located in the northwest of Turkey, which stands out with its natural beauty, historical texture and cultural diversity. It is 150 km away from Istanbul and has a coastline on the Black Sea.

The city hosts important touristic spots such as its lush green nature, Sapanca Lake, Acarlar Longozu and Karasu Beach. Ottoman-era inns, mosques and the historical Justinianus Bridge reflect the historical heritage of Sakarya.

WEATHER

Sakarya generally has mild and pleasant weather in May. The average temperature ranges between 15-25°C, with occasional light rain. We recommend that you bring comfortable clothing and shoes as we may have outdoor activities. The weather can get chilly in the evenings, so it may be useful to bring a light jacket.
